Collector Moncreux Announces Schedule of Changes Under New Revenue Act.

Collector of Internal Revenue R. C. L. Moncreux has just completed the schedule of adhesive stamp taxes that goes into effect on December 1, in accordance with the emergency revenue law passed by Congress on October 22. Sales, agreements or memorandums of sales, delivery or transfers of shares or certificates of stock, on each $100 face value, 2 cents.

Sales, agreements of sales of products of merchandise, either for present or future delivery, on each $100 in value, 1 cent.

Promissory notes or renewals, up to $100, 1 cent; for each additional $100 or fraction thereof, 1 cent.

Certificates required by law, not otherwise specified, 10 cents.

Broker's notes or memorandums of sales issued by brokers, not otherwise specified, 10 cents.

Conveyances, value over $100 and not exceeding $500, 50 cents; for each $500 or fraction thereof, 50 cents.

Entry of goods in custom-house, not exceeding $100 in value, 25 cents; not exceeding $500, 50 cents; exceeding $500 in value, $1.

Entry for withdrawal of goods from customs bonded warehouse, 50 cents.

Fire, marine or inland insurance, except purely mutual or co-operative, or renewal of premium, 1/2 cent on each $1 or fractional part; same price on fidelity insurance or guarantee on policy.

Tickets by any vessel from the United States to foreign port, cost next exceeding $50, 1 cent; less than $50, 1/2 cent; more than $50, 1 cent.

Lynchburg Man Injured.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, Va., November 14.—R. S. Burruss, a prominent lumber dealer of Lynchburg, is in a hospital in Cleveland, Ohio, suffering from injuries received in that city when he was run down by an automobile. The exact extent of his injuries is unknown here. Mrs. Burruss is in a hospital here, and her condition is such that she has not been apprised of her husband's injury.

Hinders Treatment by Force.

Ambulance Surgeon Gorman was last night forced to arrest Henry Strange, colored, and to have him taken to the Second Precinct Station in order that he might render aid, which was prevented by the negro bleeding to death. The ambulance was called to Brook Avenue and Duval Streets, where Strange was bleeding profusely from a knife cut in the lower lip. Two arteries had been severed, and the negro was slowly bleeding to death. He refused to allow the surgeon to treat the wound, and it was necessary for a policeman to arrest him and force him to accompany the surgeon to the station-house.

LIPFORD ORDERED TO PAY WIFE $5 PER WEEK

White Slave Charge Is Continued, Notwithstanding Protest of Attorney.

J. S. Lipford, 502 East Grace Street, arrested some time ago on a warrant charging him with the nonsupport of his wife and child, and on an additional warrant charging him with violating the Mann white slave act in the case of Miss Mamie Lee Sledd, was yesterday ordered to pay his wife $5 a week for the next twelve months by Justice Griggs. He was required to give $300 bond in this case, and was released on a $1,000 bond for his appearance in the Police Court on November 28 to answer the white slave charge. T. O. Lipford furnished the $300 bond, and a Mrs. Nannie G. Kelley furnished that of $1,000.

During the hearing yesterday, Attorney Edgar B. English, counsel for Lipford, and W. M. Justice, counsel for Mrs. Lipford, engaged in a heated discussion of the cases, and apparently became so enraged one with the other that spectators feared a personal encounter. Mr. English protested that his client should be accorded a speedy trial on the white slave charge, and protested against the continuance. Mr. Justice held that because of the fact that Miss Sledd was unable to appear in court at this time, the case should be continued. This was done by Justice Griggs, in spite of the emphatic protest voiced by Mr. English.

Attorney Justice sprung a sensation in the case when he introduced a letter in which it was stated that she had no desire to prosecute Lipford; that she loved him and hoped to marry him; and that he was successful in securing a divorce from his present wife, and taking the attorney to task for prosecuting the man.

Mrs. Lipford was in court with her mother and infant child. Her mother was in tears the greater part of the court proceedings.

Lipford is apparently about thirty years old, and was neatly dressed and well groomed when he appeared in court yesterday. He was apprehended here several weeks ago by Detective Sergeants Kregel and Atkinson, after returning from Pittsburgh.

LOUISIANA PHYSICIANS DEFEND THEIR STATE

Say Discussion of Malaria at Medical Convention Created Erroneous Impression.

Louisiana physicians who attended the Richmond meeting of the Southern Medical Association greatly deplored the fact that an erroneous impression prevails in many quarters regarding the health conditions in their State. Considerable discussion on the subject was involved at the Symposium on Malaria by the reading of a paper on the "Effects of Impounded Water in the Production of Malaria—A Preliminary Note," by Dr. H. H. Coker of the United States Public Health Service.

It was stated that many persons believe Louisiana to be a vast coastal plain extending from the Gulf to the foot of the Arkansas mountains, and that the region described is so completely inoculated with malaria that it is only mosquitoes and alligators can survive. The Louisiana physicians contend that as a matter of fact the nearer one gets to the Gulf, within the State, the milder the summer temperatures become, and that malaria becomes less prevalent. They claimed that mosquitoes near the Gulf belong to a species that does not convey germs of malaria, yellow fever, or any other disease. In so far as impounding waters in relation to health, it was pointed out, that a vast area of country in the long leaf pine belt, once used as a summer resort by the inhabitants of the lowlands, has now been rendered malarious by the invasion of swamps and by the impounding of waters. In the section of the State where large areas are devoted to the culture of rice, and where the fields are irrigated, it was stated that health conditions have been materially improved by instituting the proper systems of drainage.

CAPTAIN WESSON RETURNS

Captain Charles M. Wesson, United States Army, well-known to many Richmond people, has returned to his post at the United States Arsenal near Boston, after a long service in Europe. Captain Wesson was in Europe at the outbreak of the war. He was detailed to Sheffield to investigate the methods used in the manufacture of projectiles, and was later sent to London to aid stranded Americans in returning to this country. From London Captain Wesson was sent to Paris, and after rendering valuable service to American refugees there, he returned to the United States.
